Summary

Senior UX Designer for large-scale B2B commerce and operational platforms, currently designing a mortgage subservicing platform and its design system at Onity Mortgage. I turn dense workflows into intuitive interfaces, own and scale design systems, mentor designers, and work from research through usability testing and developer handoff.

Professional Experience

Senior UX Designer, Onity Mortgage Jul 2025 - Present · Houston, TX · Remote

- Lead designer for a B2B enterprise mortgage subservicing platform, owning research, IA, interaction, and visual design end-to-end through Agile sprints with product and engineering.
- Designed a 0 to 1 loan deboarding workspace that validates releases inline at submission, surfacing errors that previously took 3 days to appear and cutting ~6 hours of weekly rework per release analyst.
- Replaced scattered email threads with a real-time case workspace shaped by 10 user interviews, cutting average case resolution 62%.
- Translated flows into wireframes, mockups, and three prototype rounds built with AI tools Figma Make and Claude, with 90% of users locating case status unaided in usability testing.
- Created and own the platform's design system with reusable components, tokens, and accessibility standards used across product teams.
- Unified three client orgs' incompatible release formats into one shared system of record, replacing email escalations with a structured, auditable workflow.

UX Designer, Dell Technologies Jun 2022 - Jul 2025 · Boston, MA · Remote

- Led design of IntelliAssist, a B2B enterprise AI workspace that unified 12+ APIs behind source-tagged answers users could trust, cutting support tickets 55% and lifting self-serve adoption to 92%.
- Rearchitected the information architecture of Dell's 30,000-employee enterprise portal as sole designer, lifting findability 40% through card sorting, tree testing, and contextual inquiry.
- Built a data visualization design system spanning 10+ tools, cutting UI inconsistencies 70% with governed, reusable components.
- Revamped complex enterprise dashboards into clear, decision-ready interfaces validated through A/B testing, cutting task completion time 30%.

UX Designer (Co-op), Red Hat Jul 2021 - Jan 2022 · Boston, MA

- Designed modular, responsive website templates for 10+ open source community projects, improving content discoverability 45% through information architecture.
